WEARING OF BADGES

A very necessary reminder that all members and visitors are required to wear their name badge at all times while attending Club functions. This helps visitors to interact with members – and vice-versa, helps newer members to get to know older members and – just as importantly - helps older members make newer members welcome.

If you forget to bring your permanent badge (or temporary badge if you are a visitor), a temporary stick-on badge can be provided at the Registration Desk.

This is all about maximising Friendship, Fellowship and Fun for all.—Management Committee

BOOK CLUB - LORRAINE SAMIN

The story of a young boy, Richie, missing from a hotel room where he was left with three other boys whilst their parents dine downstairs. When his mother, Sara, checks on the children at midnight, he is missing. The boys swear they stayed in their room, and CCTV confirms Richie has not left the building. Despite a thorough search, no trace of the child is found. Distrustful of the police, Sara turns to unlikeliest private investigators: disgraced cop Ted Conkaffey and convicted killer Amanda Pharrell. Their past personal grievances involving police corruption & wrongful accusations often play out in bizarre, humorous ways. Their investigations unfold a list of suspicious characters and mystery. The plot thickens as each of these is dismissed as being responsible. Red herrings are thrown around & nothing is quite as it seems. Ultimately, the truth of Richie's disappearance is uncovered and the outcome is unexpected. This well written, compulsive crime thriller with crazy characters and dark humour, underlines how people, personally & professionally, are unfairly treated when accused of a crime but subsequently found innocent. An interesting read!

CONVENORS REPORTS FOR MAY 2023

RECOMMENDED—CINEMA—MIKE MATTHEWS

'Bank of Dave'...a truish story set in Burnley England. Starring Rory Kinnear, the son of Roy Kinnear, as Dave the wannabe banker. It was true except for the love story line with the heroic lawyer who helped Dave overcome the obstacles to form the Bank which still operates in Burnley. A true feel-good movie and made the way only the British can make a movie.

You hurt my feeling - I enjoyed this movie, but I can see why some people didn't like it, and I don't think it's for everyone. It is classic Nicole Holofcener, and fits right in with all her other movies. It's a very quiet, slice-of-life film about ordinary people who are struggling with the awkward dynamics around honesty in relationships.

No Hard Feelings - With action and horror movies abounding as of late - it became all the more refreshing to finally have a comedy thrown into the mix, and, I don't think a better job could have been done, then introducing Jennifer Lawrence's new film, 'No Hard Feelings.' And in my opinion, it hit the comedic mark,
